

The shirt Expert[®]

Your ideas. Our expertees.

Our MOQ starts at 120 pieces per color, per design and a minimum of 5 designs (600 pieces) to volumes as large as you like, minimizing your inventory risk and allowing you to kick-start your business and support growth as your business scales.

INITIAL SOURCING

Our sourcing staff works with our network of local suppliers to provide an array of different fabrics, accessories and trims for your designs.

SAMPLING

Our dedicated sampling lines and highly experienced workforce usually take about two to three weeks to produce your samples.

PRE-PRODUCTION

Our team reviews the samples to ensure that size grading and technical specifications are followed and that quality levels meet expectations.

BULK PRODUCTION

Our production lead times generally takes from four to six weeks upon confirmation of the final sample.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

Our expert QC teams perform quality control checks to seek out any problems before your products are packaged.

PACKAGING

All items are labeled, folded and packed individually and put in cartons before shipment to your final destination.
